Dear Family and Friends,

It's already time for our November newsletter! October has been a pretty good month. We have been constantly reminded that God is in control, and we cry out, "Thank God He's in control because we sure aren't!"

If you haven't heard yet, Josiah had an MRI early in October, and the results came back clear. The doctors were concerned by his large head-size, but the test results showed that no water was on the brain. There is however, a cyst, but we've been told that it looks to be the kind that won't cause any problems. So, praise the Lord! We will be scheduling another MRI in five-six months to make sure the cyst isn't growing. Please be in prayer that it will be gone!

Josiah is learning so much right now. The other day, he held up his play key-chain and said, "bu." We asked him to show us the blue key, and he did! Jael has also been growing up super-fast, as she would say. She is truly enjoying being a big four year old, thinks she understands how the world works, and is now praying for God to bless Josiah with a baby sister! We'll see how that goes...

For Fall Festival, our kids dressed up as Tinkerbell and Peter Pan. They loved going to the church to Trunk-or-Treat, ride on the hayride, and pet animals in the petting zoo. Daddy and Jael even got stuck on the Velcro wall and had a blast!

As for what God is doing right at this moment, we are furiously working to successfully present our Christmas Show with Todd Agnew on December 10th and 11th. The weekly rehearsals are times of blessing and a crazy flow of creativity. We have so many great things going on with this show – people from 13 different churches and totally different backgrounds working together, people with different ideas and gifts combining their creativity and actions. Please plan to come see this production if you can; we really think it will bless you and enable you to see the Christmas Story in a new, fresh way.

We'd really enjoy sharing with you what God has been doing through Mission Waller over this past year. To remind you, we've got a Benefit Dinner/Spasenie Concert this Monday, November 14th from 6-9pm at Gateway Christian Fellowship. If you are planning to come, would you please RSVP via email or phone to either Joel or Traci? But please, if you forget to RSVP, don't let that keep you from coming out if you want to on Monday night. We're really excited about hosting a band who came all the way from Belarus, and again, about the opportunity to give praise to the Lord for all he has done for us/through us in 2011.

One final thing – the long-term fire relief efforts are ongoing, and we continue to build relationships with other relief groups, including churches/religious organizations, as well as city, county and other governmental agencies. The mission of Mission Waller is being seen and heard by many new groups throughout this whole process, and we are able to do our small part in restoring the lives of the thousands of people who were devastated by the fires. There is still much volunteer work needed (one estimate was at 6500 volunteer hours needed just to finish cleaning the sites that needed help), so if you are wanting to bless someone during the upcoming holiday season, that would be a great way to do so! Just let us know, and we can help get you connected to the right people. We love each of you and hope to see you soon!

With Love,

Joel and Traci Bauler
And Jael & Josiah
